SPRING SNOW, 17 September 2019

Marulan and surrounding areas woke to a blanket of snow on the 17th September which started falling in the early hours at about 1.45am.

The downfall created dangerous conditions along the Hume Highway with northbound traffic queued for about 18km.

Some residents reported last seeing the covering this thick over 30 years ago.

A message from the Mayor

Bob Kirk

Maintenance Works

Throughout August and early September our Community Facilities Team spent a significant amount of time in Marulan undertaking maintenance works and some minor CBD enhancements.

Projects included painting of the guard rail and extension of the fence along the frontage of Tony Onions Park, plantings around the newly constructed toilets and installation of pots on the corner of George Street and Goulburn Street.

Other work planned later in the year includes installation of concrete kerbs around the trees on the southern entrance to Marulan.

Community Outreach Meeting

Our community outreach meeting schedule for 2019 has been finalised, and will be widely publicised over the coming months.

These meetings are a great opportunity for our rural villages to speak directly to Councillors and Senior Staff regarding issues of importance to you, but it's also important to note that Councillors can be contacted at any time, and service requests can be generated during a quick phone call to staff on 4823 4444.

This year we will be visiting Marulan on Thursday the 17th October at 6:30pm, and coming along to Towrang on Thursday 31st October, also at 6:30pm.

Mayoral Emergency Relief Fund

As we get further into spring and closer to summer, the continuing drought is expected to worsen. We had some nice rain (and snow!) in mid-September, but we are certainly desperately in need of further rain.

I want to remind residents of this fund, which was renamed in August but is still able to be utilised for drought relief. All funds have been transferred across, enabling the funds to be utilised for a wider range of events than just the drought. This does not mean funds cannot be used for drought relief, especially if tough conditions continue throughout spring and summer.

The Council decision allows flexibility in using these funds, but they may still be utilised in the coming 6 months for drought relief projects.

Council will need to make a decision on an event by event basis to determine what qualifies for assistance from the Mayoral Emergency Relief Fund.

The application form for relief funds is available to view on Council's website, or can be picked up from the Civic Centre at 184 Bourke St, Goulburn.

Hi Everyone,

Snow in September, very strange but lovely just the same, unusual as it was.

In September Rotary held their annual Book Fair in Goulburn and the Book Exchange went along to see what great books we could buy for our Book Exchange customers. To find out what was on offer come along on SATURDAY OCTOBER 12, 2019 to the Marulan Memorial Hall and see!

We also have some new titles by favourite authors such as JAMES PATTERSON, DAVID BALDACHI, DANIEL SILVA and if you like adventure along the lines of Indiana Jones, MATTHEW REILLY has a new book out.

We're always on the lookout for good quality second hand books from popular authors so if you have some please donate them all to the Book Exchange.

On our Book Exchange day this month we will be sharing the Hall with the Sydney Clockmakers who are having an exhibition in the main hall.

The Exhibition will be open from 10am to 4 pm on both Saturday & Sunday.

Till next month

President's Report

Welcome to the October issue of the Discover Marulan Newsletter.

Congratulations to Sharon Makin and the entire Kite Festival Committee for running another successful event in 2019. It takes a lot to organise such a significant event, and especially one that grows bigger and better year on year. The Kite Festival is a sub-committee of the Marulan Region Chamber of Commerce and is always on the lookout for new members of its working group. So if you'd like to be a part of the 2020 working group, please contact the Chamber's secretary at secretarymarulanchamber@gmail.com

But wait, there's more....The Chamber of Commerce has organised a second event that is sure to draw interest from all ages. The event is the Clockmakers' Weekend scheduled for the 12th-13th October at the Marulan Hall. The weekend will include a watch and clock display by the Sydney Clockmakers' Society as well as appraisals of your own clocks and watches. Many of the clocks that will be displayed are original designs showing extraordinary skills. Entrance to the event is by a gold coin donation. See the advert in this edition of the newsletter for further information.

The Chamber of Commerce continues to grow, adding new members all the time. We welcome our latest members: Richardson & Wrench, and The Consulting Company. The Chamber also continues to be an active participant in the Marulan Village Working Group that oversees the implementation of projects set out in the Marulan Village Plan. If you own a business, large or small, we encourage you to join the Chamber and take advantage of the many benefits it has to offer.

Happy reading.

Country Women's Association Report

What a busy month September was. A huge "thank you" to everyone who supported our Devonshire Tea rooms at the Kite Festival and our Mini-Fete on the Saturday before. Monies raised from these activities are used for our end-of-year donations to both the Tallong and Marulan schools.

We were all busy knitting bonnets and booties for donation to hospitals for preemie babies.

Our guest speaker at our September meeting was Tracey Roberts from the Anglicare Goulburn & Yass Homelessness Support Service. Tracey explained to our members that the services Anglicare provides to the community include emergency crisis accommodation, domestic violence support and prompt early-intervention to prevent homelessness. It was unbelievable to hear that one in eight Australians have been homeless at some point in their lives.

We donated two large boxes of food and twelve crocheted rugs, but they are also in desperate need of furniture, bedding, blankets etc. The only articles they are unable to accept are whitegoods.

If anyone would like to donate, articles can be taken to Anglicare at 130 Cowper Street, Goulburn (corner of Cowper and Verner Streets) or if you have any heavy items Tracey can arrange for them to be picked up. Her telephone number is 4823 4022.

The next catering day is Sunday, 13th October at the Horologists weekend, so come along to the supper room in the Marulan Hall and enjoy a Devonshire Tea or a freshly made sandwich with tea or coffee.

Our next community handicraft day is Monday, 14th October, at 1.30 p.m.

Our monthly meetings are held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month at our rooms at 28 George Street, Marulan, at 10.00a.m. for 10.30 a.m. New members are always welcome.

Southern Tablelands Rail User Group

TrainLink and Transport for NSW management met with Regional Rail Action NSW member groups (of which STRUG is a member) to discuss a number of topics.

Guy Collishaw who is the Director for the new Regional Diesel Fleet Project was there and RRA members were expecting to learn the specifications of the new diesel fleet. Unfortunately Guy was not very forthcoming with this information which failed to impress many RRA members, including STRUG's four representatives. Greg Price, STRUG President, attempted to talk with Guy after lunch before the forum restarted. Guy did say that the new CAF trains have a floor level to the UK height, which is the only place they have been sold to with raised platforms, and that it is higher than NSW platform heights. He said that a power operated step will be deployed when the passenger doors are opened. As regional residents are aware many regional platforms are under the correct height and this may create some problems if his information is correct. Discover Marulan readers may be familiar with the very low height of the Tallong Sydney bound platform. We are a little confused as the CAF web site lists only to floor levels and the highest floor appears to be under height.

STRUG is not happy with the lack of information in the public domain about the new diesel trains and has submitted a list of 19 questions along with a request for a meeting with Peter Allaway, Chief Operating Officer for TrainLink, to discuss Southern Tablelands train services (or lack of them). We hope to be able to get our questions answered and no doubt these answers, if they are forthcoming, will raise some new questions.

We learnt that there are 130 trains a day (65 each way) on the main south line and that passenger trains have to be squeezed in between the freight trains. Fortunately there are not many freight trains in the early hour when our commuter trains depart. The forum was judged to be a useful event and both parties agreed to meet twice a year at least.

By way of contrast, the Victorian government is buying new long distance trains for their north east route, Albury, and they have just conducted consultations with local community groups to determine the internal requirements and these new trains will be built in Victoria keeping the money circulating in the Australian economy instead of overseas economies.

Cheers,

Greg Price

The 2019 Marulan on the Meridian Kite Festival

Celebrated the Spring Equinox on Sunday 22nd September

A huge thank you to the community, sponsors and the community organisations who supported the 2019 Marulan Kite Festival.

As a community based event, run by community groups, without your support we could not have run this event. The Committee were extremely happy with the festival and have now established the format for future festivals.

Our festival was officially opened by the Mayor and we celebrated Spring with the students of Marulan Public School having us singing along to a number of songs from the Lion King. The school's performance each year is becoming one of the must see events of the festival!

Our Car and Bike show was once again well supported with a range of vehicles from over time. A huge vote of thanks to Karen McCallum who runs this event for the festival. Congratulations to the winners who took so much care to showcase their vehicles. Go to Roadkill Photography for some great photos of the day.

The chain saw racing had competitors from far and wide who showed their talents and for the first time the ladies had an opportunity to race.

There is no where else that you can race with a parachute and our Bol running was a great laugh with the over 60 year olds lobbying for a race of their own.

The Art Exhibition was very well supported showcasing the talents of our region and thanks go to Sue Montgomery for her tireless work rounding up exhibitors. New classes to the exhibition saw some amazing works being exhibited and in the textile section, some beautiful creations.

Thanks to Vanessa, Georgia and Molly for running the Pet Show and to Cooina Vets for support and judging. This year we had an alpaca, the most chilled out cat and a hen entered in the most obedient class because she never did whoopsies when she was held! It was such a fun event and will be back next year.

Finally we couldn't have asked for more perfect weather for kite flying with many colourful and hand painted kites being flown on the day.

So SAVE THE DATE....

Art and BBQ's

Gunlake was very proud to be the major sponsor of this year's Marulan Kite Festival Gunlake Quarries Art Show. Each year the competition increases with some outstanding works being on display in the Marulan Hall during the Kite Festival on Sunday 22nd September.

We are also very proud to have jointly funded the new BBQ cover in Tony Onions Park. The new structure was quite a talking point at the Kite Festival.

The BBQ cover is an initiative of the Marulan Village Plan Working Party, built by a local Marulan business and is a community project funded 100% by Gunlake and Boral.

Gunlake is committed to supporting local events and projects that benefit our local community.

We always encourage community feedback by visiting our website at: www.gunlake.com.au/contact/ or by calling Gunlake Quarry on 02 4841 1344.

Tallong Twitterings

Tallong bids farewell to DAVID LEESE who died on the 29th August 2019. David and wife Christina's early life was spent in North Sydney where they raised their boys, though upon retirement in 1999 they moved to their property in Tallong. Before the move and as preparation for farm life David, studied horticulture and joined up with the permaculture movement. David's other passion was genealogy, which he was very good at and Tallong's ANZAC ceremonies and historical displays benefited from his expertise. David and Christina were founding members of the TCFG; David at first appointed Vice President then became the second President.

David Leese

The setting up of the TCFG in 2005 was at a time when Tallong was attracting a larger population (called "newbies" by long time locals), who like Christina and David wanted to give up city life and integrate into a rural community. This widespread phenomenon was later called making a "tree change". Many took up the subdivided lands of older properties like Warrima, Bosworth, Bumballa, Tee Tree and most recently Caoura Station. The creation of Tallong Park Estate also made small acreages available.

This was also a time of change in village life as it was proposed that Goulburn City Council would amalgamate with Mulwaree Shire. Public meetings were held in the Hall about interim measures before the council elections and then how the new council would proceed. Villagers found the new Council "Goulburn Centric" and saw the need to have a stronger voice to speak up about, as they perceived it, Tallong's neglect.

Over the previous century various Progress Associations were formed and provided a voice to lobby and liaise with authorities for improved amenities in Tallong. There seems to have been a thrifty hands on approach as for example the Hall was built as a memorial after the First World War by the villagers themselves. Newspaper reports tell of numerous projects carried out by these associations; planting trees on various Arbor Days, a weather shed built for the school in the 1920s, between 1914 and 1916 requests for a loading bank at the goods siding was successfully forwarded to the Railway Department and a cricket pitch and a tennis court were provided in the 1930's. Village events were staged; of note "Back to Tallong" celebrated in the 1980s and protesting in the 1960s when the recreation reserve was to be turned into a sanitary dump. By 2004 the association of the time was winding down so in 2005 a public meeting was called to form a new representative group to meet the challenges of changing times.

The new organization, after much discussion, was named Tallong Community Focus Group (TCFG) and the committee proceeded to organize the first Apple Day Festival to be held in 2006. With the intention of building a stronger community the first festival not only honored Tallong's apple growing past it also brought residents together. The first two festivals were staged with the help of the Marulan Lions Club under their insurance policy but it became evident that the group needed to incorporate so that their own insurance could be taken out. David Leese called public meetings to formulate the group's objectives and to forward the process of incorporation. Another project initiated by David was turning the unseemly bush block in the village centre into a native plant reserve. Villagers came together to remove rubbish and with the fire brigades help tackled weeds and invasive species that had taken over. Two other projects initiated in this period involved villagers engaging with local artists and Boral to "Paint the Pot" and to write a booklet about the history/heritage of Tallong.

Locally owned & operated

Goulburn Regional Art Gallery

Closed 9 Sep to 6 Dec

The Gallery will close on 9 September to undergo its first major renovation since it became the Civic Centre's first tenant in 1991. Throughout Spring our exhibition spaces will be reconfigured and completely rebuilt to present artists' work at its absolute best. The renovation makes way for a dedicated Education Studio so we can deliver our creative learning programs in a vibrant and considered setting.

The 2019-20 Bush Fire Danger Period (BFD) is now in place for most of NSW. A fire permit is required for burning activities during this period. Fire Permits help ensure fire is used safely and minimise the danger to you, your property and the community. If you require a permit in the Marulan area, please contact the Captain on 0407 227 047

During the Bush Fire Danger Period you must have a fire permit to burn.

Rules and laws on safe burning are there to keep you and your community safe.

Fire permits are free and easy to get. Contact your local Fire Control Centre or Fire and Rescue NSW station for a free permit.
